

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

THE FLETCHER-TERRY COMPANY, LLC,	}	Case No.
Plaintiff,		Judge:
vs.
ALFA AUTOMATION U.S.A. INC.
Defendant.

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, The Fletcher-Terry Company, LLC (“Fletcher-Terry”) complains and alleges as follows against Alfa Automation U.S.A. Inc. (“Alfa Automation”).

PARTIES

1. Fletcher-Terry is a Connecticut limited liability company with a principal place of business at 91 Clark Drive, East Berlin, Connecticut.
2. Upon information and belief, Alfa Automation is a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Michigan with a principal place of business at 31874 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, Michigan.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1338 because the action arises under the laws of the United States, including 35 U.S.C. § 271 and 15 U.S.C. § 1121. This court has supplemental jurisdiction over Fletcher-Terry's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. Upon information and belief, venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) because Alfa Automation “resides” in this district within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1391(c) insofar as it is subject to personal jurisdiction in this district. Alternatively, upon information and belief, venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial portion of the actions and/or omissions giving rise to the claim(s) in this action occurred in this district.

5. Upon information and belief, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Alfa Automation because it is incorporated in and maintains its principal place of business in Michigan, has systematic and continuous contacts in Michigan, and conducts business in Michigan including offering for sale or selling products that infringe the patent-in-suit identified below and using the marks identified below.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

6. Fletcher-Terry began as a business in 1868 and today is a leading manufacturer of picture frame assembly machinery, picture frame assembly fasteners, picture frame material cutters and scoring devices, and picture frame material fasteners.

7. Upon information and belief, Alfamacchine Srl was an Italian based manufacturer of frame joining machinery, V-Nail fasteners and framing points.

8. Upon information and belief, Alfamacchine Srl used the trademark ALFAMACCHINE on and in connection with frame joining machines, V-nail fasteners, and framing points, including without limitation, metal fasteners, namely, nails for joining picture framing materials, and picture framing points and glazier points; power and manually operated machines for joining picture frames; power tools used in the production of picture frames (the “Alfamacchine goods”).

9. Upon information and belief, Alfamacchine Srl began using the trademark ALFAMACCHINE on the Alfamacchine goods at least as early as 2006.

10. Upon information and belief, Alfamacchine Srl began using the trademark POWER TWIST® on and in connection with metal fasters and lamellar staples at least as early as March 12, 2003.

11. Upon information and belief, AMP was a business located in Vernon Hills, Illinois, USA, which business began in the late 1980s as a distributor for Alfamacchine Srl products.

12. Upon information and belief, in the late 1990s Illinois Tool Works (“ITW”) acquired the AMP business and operated AMP as a division of ITW under ITW’s corporate umbrella.

13. Upon information and belief, in 2005 ITW acquired Alfamacchine Srl, the Italian based manufacturer of frame joining machinery, V-Nail fasteners and framing points.

14. Upon information and belief, Alfamacchine Srl was using the trademarks ALFAMACCHINE® on and in connection with the Alfamacchine goods and POWER TWIST® on metal fasteners and lamellar stapes at the time it was acquired by ITW.

15. Upon information and belief, subsequent to the acquisition, ITW held Alfamacchine Srl as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of ITW.

16. Upon information and belief, ITW continued to use trademarks ALFAMACCHINE® on and in connection with the Alfamacchine goods and POWER TWIST® on metal fasteners and lamellar stapes through the AMP division and Alfamacchine Srl subsidiary.

17. In 2012, Fletcher-Terry purchased the AMP division business of ITW and the Alfamacchine Srl subsidiary of ITW, including all common law trademarks and attendant goodwill associated therewith.

18. Since 2012 Fletcher-Terry has operated the acquired Alfamacchine Srl business and the acquired AMP division business to produce and sell underpinners/frame assembly machines, framing points and V-nail fasteners, including the Power Twist® V-Nail fasteners, used in the picture framing and woodworking industries. Fletcher-Terry has continued to use the ALFAMACCHINE® trademark on and in connection with the Alfamacchine goods and the POWER TWIST® on metal fasteners and lamellar staples.

PATENT INFRINGEMENT

19. Fletcher-Terry owns by assignment all right, title and interest in U.S. Patent No. 6,276,886 (“the ’886 Patent”) entitled “Laminar Staple for Corner Jointing Profiled Strips”, issued August 21, 2001 to inventor Mr. Giuseppe Raffoni. The ’886 Patent is attached as Exhibit 1.

20. The ’886 Patent is in full force and effect.

21. Fletcher-Terry has the sole right to bring this action for infringement of the ’886 Patent.

22. Upon information and belief, Alfa Automation develops, manufacturers, markets and sells products that practice the claims of the '886 Patent.

23. Upon information and belief, Alfa Automation is at least partially owned by Mr. Giuseppe Raffoni.

24. Mr. Raffoni is featured on the website of Alfa Automation. See Alfa Automation's website <http://www.alfaautomationusa.com/Home/About>, last visited December 6, 2016.

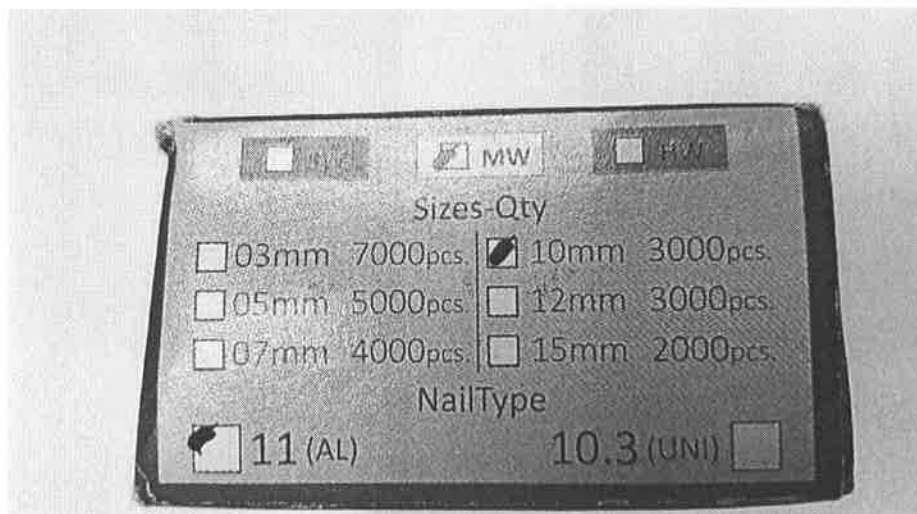

25. Mr. Raffoni is the inventor of the '886 Patent, and upon information and belief was a shareholder and officer of Alfamacchine Srl in 2005 prior to the sale of Alfamacchine Srl to ITW.

26. Upon information and belief, as a shareholder and officer of Alfamacchine Srl in 2005 at the time of the sale of Alfamacchine Srl to ITW, Mr. Raffoni had actual knowledge that all right, title and interest of the '886 Patent had been sold to ITW.

27. Upon information and belief, Alfa Automation had active and constructive notice of the '886 Patent.

28. Despite having knowledge of the '886 Patent, Alfa Automation began offering for sale and selling staples that infringe the '886 Patent, including the staples contained in the following packaging bearing the name and address of Alfa Automation:

29. Preliminary analysis of a staple contained in the Alfa Automation box illustrated above indicates that the staple infringes the '886 Patent. This preliminary analysis and the following illustrations are for notice purposes under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8 and 12.

30. Below is an annotated pictorial image of the staple from the box shown above indicating that the staple includes a lamina having a centerline plane and folded according to a substantially W-shaped profile having two laminar walls arranged at an angle with respect to said centerline plane and two ribs extending outwardly from said walls:

31. Preliminary analysis and measurements were performed on cross sections of a staple contained in the Alfa Automation box along line A-A and along line C-C as shown below:

32. Preliminary analysis and measurements on cross-sections of the staple contained in the Alfa Automation box shown in paragraph 28 along lines A-A and line C-C of the staple shown in the preceding paragraph revealed the following relative shape and dimensions, and that the staple includes the features of said walls and said ribs having opposite ends defining a sharp edge and a striking edge, wherein said ribs are formed by laminar flat border portions of said walls, each of said ribs extending from a respective wall of said walls to the end of the staple and forming an angle with the respective wall, decreasing from said sharp edge to said striking edge (e.g.,:  $\alpha_L > \beta_L$ ;  $\alpha_R > \beta_R$ ):

33. These illustrations are based upon Fletcher-Terry's preliminary analysis and measurements of a staple in the box illustrated in Paragraph 28, and may be amended based on additional analysis and discovery.

34. Fletcher-Terry filed an action for infringement of the '886 Patent against Alfa Automation in the District of Connecticut on January 25, 2016. The Action was voluntarily dismissed by Fletcher-Terry on April 28, 2016.

35. On December 13, 2016, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office issued a Certificate of Correction for the '886 Patent correcting mistakes in the claims of the '886 Patent attributable to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

36. Fletcher-Terry is the owner of the following trademark registrations relevant to this Complaint:
